March 28, 2010

Thursday, April 1, fifty (parents and children) of the Lake Harbour church will travel to Nashville, TN for the 2010 LLL convention. This convention allows each participant to showcase their Spiritual talents in a very public way. In fact, the number of Christians attending this convention is 10,000+.

If you haven't noticed the quality - not to mention quantity - of the young men and women at Lake Harbour, perhaps it is time for an eye exam. This Sunday night could easily serve as that exam because our assembly will be led by our young men. I strongly challenge you to support them by attending and offering encouragement to them. This type of encouragement opened my eyes to ministry years ago, and you have that same ability to encourage our own young men by attending and saying something as simple as, "very fine job."

There is a schedule printed on the back of the bulletin (in the PM Sermon section) indicating the events to follow the evening assembly. Much the same as last year, we are going to shorten our PM assembly so that we can transition into a showcase of the hard work our young men and women have put into the LLL program. Thank you for supporting the youth of the Lake Harbour church.

YOUTH NEWS

Last Saturday night, the Cub Scouts & Boy Scouts camped out on the Lake Harbour church grounds. They really must have “been prepared” because they survived wind, rain, freezing temperatures and even a little snow. If you are interested in Cub or Boy Scouts, we’ve got great groups here at LH.
