From Pigg's Pen...

PROFITING FROM THE PROPHETS

Last Sunday, I finished our series on the family—"Heaven Help The Home." I'm planning a new series to begin on July 11 entitled, "Profiting From The Prophets." Some of the finest family vacations Beth and I took with our kids were to historic places and learning the lessons of the past relating to great Americans who helped shape this great country. That is exactly one reason why God gave us the OT according to Romans 15:4—so we can learn from these writings, not repeat the mistakes of the past, and see how God's steadfast mercy and everlasting love blessed those who followed him faithfully. My goal will be to try my best to make the messages of his ancient messengers relevant to our lives today and to encourage us all to read and reflect further from the prophets and profit from them. Why don't you get ahead of me and begin today spending some valuable time reading both the major and minor prophets so you can be prepared to drink deeply with me from this section of our Bibles.

JUANA'S FATHER TO SPEAK SUNDAY—JULY 4TH

Beth and I will be taking a short weekend holiday to be with our son, David and his family in Senatobia over the 4th of July. In my absence, you are going to have a special speaker—Juana's father. In the rest of From Pigg's Pen, I'm going to let her tell you about how proud she is of him and some of his accomplishments.....

My father's name is Walter E. Reed. He has been a minister for 48 years. He spent most of those years as the minister of the Calhoun St. Church of Christ in Newport, AR but has served many of the surrounding congregations in different capacities. Due to illness, he has "retired" from full time preaching. He met the former Emma Tripp (my mother) in high school. After high school he attended Shorter College in North Little Rock, AR then transferred to Long Beach State in Long Beach, CA. It was there he began a boxing career (a career my mother convinced him to give up). Shortly thereafter, he was drafted into the Army. Before his deployment to Vietnam, he and my mother were married and settled in Augusta, AR. Upon his return to the states, he attended Harding College (now University) where he majored in Bible. They have two wonderful kids—Juana (Harold) and Juan (Tashia) despite being the kids of a preacher and a teacher (smile) plus six grandchildren. He has served in the community on the Augusta school board, mentor/trainer to the Augusta Boxing Club, and volunteer with the Head Start Program. He retired from Entergy and began mission work in the Bahamas.

Wonderful Wednesday speaker for July 7 is John Proctor - "Rejoicing Not Resentful."
