“EXTREME HOME MAKEOVER”—STARTS NEXT SUNDAY

Most of the preparations are done to conduct a family seminar with Steve Reeves, preacher for the 800-member Goodman Oaks church of Christ in Southaven, MS. My son, David, was recently ordained a deacon for this congregation, and he is also one of their main music worship leaders. He says, “Steve is an outstanding person, a dynamic speaker and well qualified to address family topics.” We need to be praying for Steve’s wife, Tami. She had a complete mastectomy recently and she began chemo treatments this week. The doctors have given her a good prognosis, but obviously the Reeves are greatly concerned for her recovery to full health so they can continue their life’s work together for years to come.

I’m excited about the potential numerical growth that we can achieve from this seminar as we are having many visitors at every service. So, let’s do all we can to invite our friends and family to join us. With our attendance over 200 the last few weeks, we could easily have to put out chairs with a record crowd. Make sure to clear your calendar next Sunday through Wednesday so your family can participate and benefit from every stirring lesson that Steve will bring. Some special events that are planned include:

1. Potluck lunch after morning worship at the Pigg's home for the elders, ministers, and their wives.
2. Evening potlucks Monday through Wednesday for Action Teams: Monday-Rankin County, Tuesday-Madison/Canton/Flora, and Wednesday-Hinds County/Ridgeland.
3. We have arranged for Steve to stay at Day’s Inn Hotel in Ridgeland, at the corner of Center Street and Ridgewood, one block north of County line Road. We have reserved a suite for Steve that can accommodate visitation. Steve has agreed that if any family has issues that they need special counseling, he will make an appointment with you to meet with him at the hotel. You will need to set this up with him personally after he arrives.

Let’s all be praying fervently that God will use our “Extreme Home Makeover” to help every family at LHD who has set their goal to become happier, healthier and more harmonious as they make preparations to go the distance in this life & reach heaven’s gate to hear the Lord say, “Well done!”

MADISON CHURCH SELECTS ELDERS

Congratulations to the Madison congregation upon the selection of its first eldership. Brother Bob Brown and Kyle Smith were ordained as elders last Sunday. They are now meeting at the Gluckstadt exit on I-55 North, East of the intersection. Plans for a future permanent building are still in the making. Brother Jim Howard is doing a wonderful job of serving as their preacher. Let’s continue to pray for this sister church as they go forward and progress spiritually and numerically.
