FALLING IN LOVE AGAIN

In February, 1976, Elvis Presley recorded one of his lesser known love songs, "I'm Never Going to Fall in Love Again," in which he pleaded, "Please don't make me fall in love again." Unfortunately, millions of lovers "fall in and out of love" with each other every day in our world, and sadly some of them experience such deep hurts through it all that they declare, "I'm never going to fall in love again," and they don't! Others lose their life-long lovers to death, and wonder if they can go on without them. Often when friends or family members suggest after a reasonable time of bereavement that they consider dating again and even marrying someone new, they often vow, "No way; I'll never love again!" and they don't either! However, God in his loving providence often sends new lovers into the life of a divorced person or one whose spouse has deceased that they never knew possible they could love with as much intimacy as their first mate. Sometimes second marriages that are in harmony with God's word are better, richer, and fuller than the first! It's uncommon, but occasionally couples fall out of love, divorce and stay that way for years, and surprise everyone, even themselves, when they fall in love again and remarry! When that happens, I'm sure God is glad to see lost love revived, restored and relived again. I've also seen unmarried singles in their later years eventually find that special "first love" that they never thought they would ever meet and marry. As our children grow up, most of them will marry, and it is a reality that we marry who we date!

Beginning this Lord's Day through Wednesday, in our "Extreme Home Makeover" series, Steve Reeves, preacher for the Goodman Oaks church in Southaven, MS, will share with us six timely, practical messages from God's Word that will help our families fall in love all over again, whether you are married or not. Every healthy, harmonious home needs to have a makeover every once in a while, and it goes without saying, that the fractured, failing marriage needs to take extreme measures to make up lost love. Our singles that are seeking a soul-mate will be blessed with spiritual guidance to help you in your search. Those of us who have no desire to re-marry, nevertheless have close friends, children and grandchildren that we need to counsel from time-to-time in the Biblical principles of marriage and family as well as share the wisdom of our past successful experiences. We are blessed at LHD with many different kinds of families who are trying to build a home God's way so that they can achieve mutual peace and happiness. God wants every family to experience love and joy and so do our spiritual leaders. That is why we planned in our program of work for '09 to conduct an "Extreme Home Makeover." But it will not profit you or your friends if we don't take full advantage of it with our personal attendance and our invitations to others. Let's put our best foot forward to enrich our families and homes this week!

Jesus was disappointed that some Christians at Ephesus had "left their first love," and he pleaded with them to "repent" and begin doing again the things they did when they first fell in love with God (cf. Rev 2:4-5). There will be no lukewarm lovers of God in heaven! It is our prayer that if you have "fallen out of love" with God, that "Extreme Home Makeover" will fuel the fires of Divine love for you that you will fall in love again with Jesus and recommit yourself to His church family who loves you! We will be extending God's invitation and encouraging you to turn your heart homeward toward heaven at each service. Our elders, Dustin and I will be standing by to comfort and counsel you in your confession.

Lake Harbour Family,

It is so amazing how God answers prayers. When we found out we were moving to Jackson, we prayed that God would place us in a church where we could serve Him best. Praise God-He put us at Lake Harbour! This church has been such a blessing. You've helped us move boxes, brought food when I was injured in a car accident, and showered us with gifts and love to celebrate our marriage. Words cannot express how thankful we are to have you in our lives. Your prayers and encouragement are always so uplifting.

Thank You for everything!

Scrapbook WILL NOT MEET THIS SUNDAY
Art says it WILL NOT MEET THIS SUNDAY

Many of our teens are now registered for the Discover Youth Rally in Starkville, MS. If you are interested in going, but missed the early registration, sign up A.S.A.P. The new registration cost is $20. All relevant information regarding the Discover Youth Rally can be found at www.starkvillechurch.org.

Next Saturday, our teens will travel to Sardis Lake for the annual S.L.C.C. Day. Part of the purpose of this day is to raise money for camp. If you are interested in donating, see Dustin. The van will meet capacity very quickly, so some parents will need to drive. This would be a good opportunity for you to experience some of the things your child(ren) have come to love.

Don't forget about our "Extreme Home Makeover."

The  foundation of Mississippi recently granted our very own Christian Cudo a wish. Friends and family gathered at Gatti Town to reveal his wish. He was presented with a laptop computer. Now Christian can do research on the things he loves at home. One of them is sports. He also received an autographed poster from the U.S. Paralympics Team in Colorado, along with some words of encouragement. Congratulations Christian!
