PREACHING IN MADISON THIS SUNDAY NIGHT

Recently Jim Howard, preacher for the Madison congregation and their new elders, Bob Brown and Kyle Smith, invited me to speak at their evening assembly this Sunday night. Beth and I are looking forward to visiting with many of our former members and meeting their new members. I am excited about this opportunity to speak at Madison for the first time since it was formed a few years back. We will miss the singing emphasis tonight, and I appreciate Dustin filling in for me with the devotional.

SPECIAL TRIBUTE TO VETERANS—SUNDAY, NOV 8

During the Sunday morning worship service on November 8 Dusty Reynolds is planning to exhort us with a brief tribute to our fallen military men and women who have made the ultimate sacrifice of their lives, especially in the present wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. In connection with Veterans Day that will be celebrated the following Wednesday, we will be recognizing all our military vets that are members at LHD. Song leader, Greg Palmer, will incorporate some patriotic hymns and I will follow with an exhortation of the ultimate sacrifice of Jesus' life in shedding his blood for the sins of the world. The congregation will partake of the Lord's Supper as the climax of our worship rather than at the beginning when we normally observe it. One of the American flags that has flown over the U.S Capital building and was presented to our veterans last year will be displayed on the podium as a part of our welcome and announcements. Our Boy Scout, Roderick Jones, will lead us in a salute to Old Glory. As citizens of the U.S and members of the "Kingdom of God," we have a civic responsibility to pray for governmental leaders, pay taxes, and obey the laws of the land as we enjoy the privileges of living in the greatest nation on earth. We must thank God for our freedom and honor those who protect them and us by laying down their lives on our behalf.

LES FERGUSON TO UPDATE US ON MEXICO MISSIONS

Next Sunday evening, November 8, Les Ferguson, preacher for the church in Kosciusko, with whom we partner in the mission work in Guanajuato, Mexico, will be with us to update us on his recent trip and present a video presentation. This past Thursday evening he and his elders met with our elders, and Eddie Perkins at my home for supper and a profitable planning session and prayer. This is a "hot spot" for evangelism as evidenced by two more baptisms by Uriel in Celaya just this past week! Make plans to not miss this important report.

Youth News....

I'd like to give a special thanks to Freddie Williams and Roderick Jones for cooking all of our food for the Winter Youth Series last Sunday night. I'd also like to thank all of the servers and cleaners who made everything go so smoothly. I'd like to thank Cameron Magee, Stephen Lum, Roderick Jones & Harold Hall, Jr. for helping with our worship assembly. And, lastly, I'd like to thank LHD for accommodating all of our visitors for our outside assembly. The afternoon was a tremendous success!

It was a tough decision with so many great costumes, but congratulations to Michael Taft for winning the Trunk-or-Treat costume contest.
